WILL MANUFACTURE AUTO CARS IN THIS CITY

THE BROWN AUTO COMPANY, A NEW CORPORATION, TO MANUFACTURE AUTOMOBILES IN RICHMOND—HAVE JUST COMPLETED DEMONSTRATION CAR WHICH PRESENTS MANY NEW FEATURES — FORMER DESIGNER OF CHALMERS COMPANY WILL HAVE CHARGE OF INDUSTRY HERE.

The Brown Auto company is the name of the latest addition to the manufacturing industries of the Pacific Coast and which is going to be located in Richmond. Herbert F. Brown, the well known real estate owner and capitalist, is the head of the latest venture in the automobile business in California.

For the past three months a force of expert mechanics have been engaged out in the neighborhood of a private garage near Twenty-third street, in making a demonstration car which is built on plans that are expected to revolutionize the automobile business in the country. The car was designed and built under the supervision of Charles Smith, for many years chief designer for the Chalmers Automobile company, of Detroit. Mr. Smith was also connected with the Ford automobile people in the capacity of designer for several years.

The demonstration car made its initial appearance on the streets of Richmond yesterday. It is the intention of the manufacturers of the new car to place it on the market at the extremely low price of $410. Although the new car presents many novel features it cannot be classed as a freak. It has an underslung body, cantilever springs, twenty-five horse-power motor, selective gear drive, speed of from twenty-five to sixty miles per hour, wind shield, top, electric lights, and in fact, most every accessory found on the usual high priced cars.

One of the principal features is the solid steel wheels, instead of the usual spoke wheels. This class of wheels are being used extensive-

LIGHTNING STRIKES CAR SETS FIRE TO SALOON

It has been said that lightning is as scarce in this section as tropic vegetation in the arctic, but the people of Richmond last evening were treated to a heavenly pyrotechnic display that reminded many of Kansas and other portions of the east where Dame Nature is very lavish in her display of electrical forces. About 7:30 the heavens were illuminated by a flash of lightning that ended in a finale of deep, rolling thunder which caused many to jump in their tracks.

About 1:35 last night while car No. 126 was on the East Richmond branch of the East Shore and Suburban Railway was at the end of the line near Grand Canyon park, and while Motorman C. E. Angel was changing his trolley a flash of lightning enveloped the car and burned out the controller box and somewhat damaged the front end of the car. Conductor B. P. Bowen, who was in charge, had fortunately alighted from his car at the time to assist the conductor to change the trolley. No passengers were aboard and outside of the

ANNEXED DISTRICT WILL BE WELL PROVIDED FOR

CITY SCHOOL BOARD HAS MADE AMPLE PROVISION FOR IMPROVED SCHOOL FACILITIES FOR PULLMAN AND STEGE—MASS MEETING WILL BE HELD TOMORROW EVENING IN BARNAMAN'S HALL BY MEMBERS OF IMPROVEMENT CLUB WHO FAVOR BOND ISSUE.

In the plans outlined by the Richmond school board, heretofore published in the Record-Herald, ample provision has been made for relieving the school situation in the Pullman and Stege districts. It is the intention of the board of school trustees of the city to purchase a site in the Pullman district upon which a sufficiently large school building will be erected, provided the electors of the city see fit to vote "Yes" on the bond proposition on next Saturday. The building planned for the annexed district will be built on the unit plan so that at any future date additions can be built on as that section grows.

Tomorrow evening a mass meeting will be held at Barnaman's hall on 19th street, in the annexed district, under the auspices of the Richmond Center Improvement club when the school bond election and the needs of the district will be discussed.

The extreme east section of the city has been sadly in need of better school facilities for some time and the members of the Richmond Center Improvement club are unanimous in the matter of the necessity of carrying the school bond election next Saturday.

The members of the Richmond school board, headed by Superintendent of Schools W. T. Helms, will be on hand tomorrow evening at the mass meeting and will endeavor to enlighten the citizens of the east side on what the tentative plans of the board are in the matter of better and more efficient school facilities for the people of Pullman and Stege. Other able exponents of the school question will also be on hand and will address the audience.

SAN PABLO BRIDGE DAMAGED BY STORM

The bridge across Wild Cat creek at San Pablo was damaged by the high water on Saturday, the team and vehicle traffic has been suspended across the bridge until the same can be repaired.

The high water resulting from the recent rain uprooted many of the trees on the banks of the creek and the trees floated down stream and tore out a portion of the piling under the bridge. It is said that many small bridges on Wild Cat creek have been washed out and the banks of the stream are strewn with timbers and debris.

RUNAWAY TEAM IS STOPPED BY COPS

Had it not been for the bravery of Officers Barry and Wright in stopping the runaway team belonging to the Old's Transfer company, at a late hour Saturday, at the corner of Ninth street and Macdonald avenue, it is probable that several people might have been killed or injured had the horses reached the shopping district.

Hubert E. Phillips, driver of the team, was placed under arrest for failing to comply with the city ordinance of tying his horses in public places.

SUPREME COURT ORDERS WRIT OF MANDATE ISSUE IN OWENS RECALL CASE

Highest Tribunal of the State Holds That It Has Authority Over Lower Court and That Widest Latitude Should Be Allowed In Recall Cases For Reason That Much Haste Was Used In Invoking This Provision of the Law—Secretary of State Will Now Have to Certify Petitions to Governor—Election Will Be Called Within Not Less Than Forty, Or More Than Eighty Days.

(Special to Record-Herald)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—The Owens recall case came up before the supreme court in this city, in banc today. Attorneys Ralph Jones, of Martinez and H. M. Owens, of San Francisco, appeared for Senator Jas. C. Owens, and H. R. Lister, of this city, appeared before the court on behalf of the State Federation of Labor to urge the issuance of a writ of mandate to compel Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan to certify the petitions filed with him by the county clerks of Marin and Contra Costa counties to Governor Johnson, the petitions having been held up by virtue of a writ of prohibition issued by Superior Judge R. H. Latimer of this county a few days ago on request of Senator Owen's attorneys.

The case was called at 10 o'clock and the greater portion of the morning session was devoted by the court to hearing arguments on the part of the attorneys representing Owens and parties seeking to recall him from office.

The court, after listening to the arguments presented, held that the writ of mandate asked for by the petitioners in the case should issue and an order was entered to that effect.

The secretary of state has now no alternative but to certify the petitions to the chief executive of the state who will call the election within not less than forty days or not more than eighty days from the time the petitions have been certified to him.

Chief Justice Beatty, in announcing the decision of the court intimated that the recall was a matter wherein widest latitude should be allowed owing to the haste in which this provision of the law was usually invoked, and for that reason the court was disposed to grant the request of the petitioners. The court also held that the supreme court held superior jurisdiction in the matter over the lower tribunal.

The deceased was an old resident of this city and is survived by a large family. The funeral arrangements are in charge of undertaker E. B. Smallwood.

"To Observations Which Ourselves We Make, We Grow More Partial, for the Observer's Sake."

BOOTS AND BOOTJACKS GONE

While the rain was pattering on the roof last night there was nothing much in sight to write about, we were reminded by an exchange that is always peering into the future, or back into the past, or under the bed, or somewhere else, that there is practically no such things any more as boots and bootjacks, while during our boyhood days and for some years after every man and boy in the world wore boots, and pulled them off with bootjacks at night, and kicked dents and mars into the baseboard all around the house room trying to kick those boots on when the morning was cold and snowy and the boots wet, cold, frozen and stiff. Who of the older men of today do not remember those good old days of boots—how hard they were to get on in the morning and how hard to get off at night. And the dear little boots of childhood days, with their red tops and their copper toes! Ah, "those were the happy days!"

But the days when the taking off of the family boots was an event every night and another event when they were put on every morning has passed into the great oblivion that will swallow up the rest of our memories along with our mortal bodies all in good time as the world turns round and Colonel Roosevelt and old Joe Cannon continue to run for office. The days of boots and bootjacks have passed long ago, and in the interests of looks, time and economy it is well that it is so. Now-days the boys on the farm or elsewhere can work half an hour longer than those of a quarter of a century ago, because it is not necessary to spend the time in getting the boots on and off.

We old chaps remember very well how we used to gather round the fire of a winter night and grease up our boots with mutton tallow, so our feet could be kicked into the "bullhides" next morning in time to get to work by sun up or thereabouts. The farmer was the last to give up his boots, and it was an awful wrench for him to do it. The older men would never have jarred loose from the boots on their own accord, but the wife kept after the old man until he finally bought himself a pair of "congress gaiters" to wear to school entertainments in the winter and barbecues in the summer, and when you saw one of the old timers with those congress gaiters on, which his wife had made shine with blacking—the kind that had on the box lid a picture of a dog barking at his reflection in a newly polished boot, (not shoe),—you knew right then that the man was "all dressed up." His breeches legs had been worn in his boots so long that when they were freed for a short time the yshowed a disposition to wind round at the ankles, and the man was glad when the affair was over.

But gradually we have all become accustomed to the shoes, and with but few exceptions the man who used to wear boots and kick dents in the baseboards of the kitchen in the morning putting them on and swear at the bootjack at night while taking them off, now has three or four pairs of shoes—patent leather, gunmetal, ties, tans, and the like,—and the souvenirs of those good old days of boots and bootjacks have long ago been relegated to that half forgotten past which is never to return, even as have the hoopskirt and the bustle of the woman, the Cincinnatti $60 buggy out in the old shed, the wind-broken organ that the oldest girl used to have in one corner of the best room, and the little pale bouquet of wax flowers under a glass oval on the mantlepiece.

Today is not yesterday, nor yet is it tomorrow, and we will never be boys and girls again.

It is pleasing to note that the Oakland Antioch and Eastern railway, which can be set down as a Contra Costa county enterprise, for right here in this county is where it was born, is making money and doing well, with a bright future ahead of it. According to a recent published report the road made a clear profit of $396,740 during its first year. Walter Arnstein is president and Hugo Arnstein, traveling auditor, used to be stationed at Wlanut Creek in this county. He is now at the Oakland offices and is a fine fellow, if ever there was one.

CALIFORNIA IS—CALIFORNIA!

Thus wisely speaks the San Francisco Call:

"It was inevitable, the interest which European capital is taking now in California, the iact that British money is coming to invest in California's future.

"Side by side are published the announcements that a British syndicate has undertaken the refinancing of the United Properties business and that a $4,000,000 investment is being made in Sacramento valley lands by another English organization.

"The United Properties investment means that $20,000,000 is to be spent in improvements of the ferry and suburban and interurban car system that joins San Francisco and Alameda county; the other proposition means that thrifty English settlers will be brought to the fertile central California lands, to make the acres more valuable, to produce more food for the world and more wealth for the state.

"'There is a reason' behind every investment of capital. There are two reasons for investment in California now. The first is that the Panama canal is going to stimulate the development of this state; the second reason is that California is—California."

They used to sell us what we bought,
And things worked very well,
But now our ways are greatly changed;
We buy anything they sell.

It is said that the truth does not hurt anyone, but that is a mistake. It is the truth that does hurt.

Orange county, California, offers a reward of $100 for triplets. Nothing doing around here! 'Taint half enough money.

One way to get rich is to marry it, but that, also, has its drawbacks. Often you get a lot of other things besides the money.

Speaking of currency problems, what we need is some kind of a scheme whereby a fellow can get out of debt as easily as he can get into it.

California may vote itself "dry" at the next election, but all the votes in it wouldn't dry it off to any noticeable extent right now.

It is impossible to please everybody, and in fact it is often hard to please anybody. The fellow who has to pay an income tax don't like it, and the other fellow, who has no income to be taxed, is not happy, either.

Some of our esteemed exchanges contain long articles upon stocks, bonds and currency problems, from the gifted pens of editors who have to skirmish like everything to pay off one lone printer Saturday evenings.

If we were half as smart as Editor Chester Rowell thinks he is we would quit editing a country daily in California and go over and be editor-in-chief of the London Times, or New York Herald, and maybe both.

Mr. Burbank's spineless cactus may be a very good thing, and doubtless it is, but we don't like its name. Seems like anything that is spineless must naturally be weak, all same Taft, or the present Mexican policy.

The Pittsburg Post says it sees Major Dan McLaughlin's picture so often it is reminded of a kidney cure advertisement. Look here, brother, there is nothing wrong with Major Dan's kidneys, nor his heart either. SUGGESTIONS FOR CHILD LABOR SUNDAY SERVICE

(By Press Committee W. C. T. U.)

Please read as Scripture reading Matt. XVIII, XIX, 1-14.

Until recently Colorado boasted the best and most advanced labor laws in the United States; but today California leads all other states in that respect. This is no reason for relaxation in our efforts to still better protect childhood and youth from the power of those who would exploit young lives for financial gain.

The Juvenile Protective Association of San Francisco would abolish "street merchants," as newsboys, gumsellers and other street venders are called. No child under the age of fourteen should be found vending on the street; and no minors under eighteen years of age should be employed in gainful occupations. It is absolutely necessary for the development of healthy minds in healthy bodies that the life of a human being should be given entirely to proper preparation for the work and responsibilities which must be assured later, or upon the attainment of legal majority. Street work has gravely deteriorating effects. A child's constitution is undermined by excitement, fatigue and irregular meals, particularly the nervous system, leading to early habits of using stimulants and to cigarette smoking.

Statistics from juvenile courts in ten cities throughout this country show that the largest percentage of delinquents come from working boys and girls; especially from children who are exposed to the dangers lurking in the streets. The National Child Labor Commission after investigations in all the large cities of our country, concludes that poverty is not the chief cause for filling the streets with children vending their wares; that only 20 per cent of such activity is due to dire necessity. The many parents cause or encourage children to go out working for the small profit to themselves from such labor.

As to the more spurious problem of children in factories and commercial concerns: People must be taught that the child in the factory drives the father to the bread line. Child labor reduce wage. Parents must be taught to rear and educate children not to exploit them. In so doing they fall below the animal in practice. Nowhere in Nature do we find the parent animal living off its young.

Over two million children under fourteen years of age work in some gainful occupation in these United States, many in the Southern cotton mills under ten years of age work ten to eleven hours a day. California is not so disgraced yet; but we are warned by Eastern social workers to build barriers before the expected immigration sets in when the canal is opened.

Felix Adler says: "That nation is hastening to ruin—even to commercial ruin—which exploits its children to increase temporarily its wealth."

The W. C. T. U. is always and everywhere strongly and actively opposed to child labor.

stare to the street car employes the damage was slight.

About the same hour last evening a stroke of lightning hit Hopkin's saloon, near the county line and tore four holes in the roof. As soon as the proprietor and several customers who were in the place at the time of the visit of the electrical bolt had recovered from their astonishment it was found that the building was on fire. The Albany fire department responded to an alarm and soon had the blaze under control. The damage will be light.

It is said that this is the first time in the history of the county that lightning has been known to do any damage to property in this section.

The Library Corner

Being a condensed account of activities connected with the Richmond Public Library during the past week, together with a chat about books. It is the endeavor of the Record-Herald to make this column a feature every Monday.

The most noteworthy event at the library this week has been the flooding of the basement, necessitating the closing of the children's room for a few days. The librarian was very sorry indeed to deny the children their library privileges but with the floor covered with water part of the time and cold and damp the rest of the time it was deemed wiser to close the room until it could be thoroughly dried. It is hoped that the rains will stop long enough to give time for repairs and that the children's room can be opened again Tuesday. However it is fairly sure of being ready for the big story hour on Thursday at 4:00 o'clock. This story hour is to be devoted to the boys' favorite hero, King Arthur.

In anticipation of the harbor that Richmond is to have soon (at least we all feel sure it is coming) the library has added a few technical books along the line of harbor engineering, etc. The following is a list of books on that subject that is now ready for circulation. "Harbor engineering," by B. Cunningham and "Dock engineering," by the same author; "Water supply," by F. E. Turneaure; 3 books on engineering by N. Hawkins, entitled "New catechism of the steam engine," "Maxims and instructions for the boiler room," "Handbook of calculations for engineers and firemen," "Practical instructor and reference book for locomotive firemen and engineers," by G. F. Lockhart, "Engineering in shops and factories," by H. G. Tyrrell, "The induction motor," by B. A. Behrend, "The chemistry and technology of mixed paints," by M. Toch, "The theory and practice of enamelling on iron and steel," by J. Grunwald, "The history of the clay-working industry in the U. S.," by H. Ries, "The analysis of oils and allied subjects," by A. C. Wright, "The oil-chemists' handbook," by E. Hopkins, and "Practical telephone handbook," by T. S. Baldwin.

One of the most valuable reference books of the year has been added to the library's collection this week: The Funk and Wagnalls New Standard dictionary of the English language. This dictionary is one of the most complete of its kind. It has many special features that place it in the rank above other dictionaries. The illustrations are very good, many of them being colored. The book promises to be a great satisfaction to the user. Three other dictionaries have been accessioned this week: one French dictionary, a German, and a Spanish dictionary. All will be found on the reference shelves.

Several little books on music, especially operas have made ready. Among the number are the story of Balfe's Bohemian girl, Bizet's Carmen, and the stories of several of Wagner's operas. The flying dutchman, the meistersingers, the ring of the Nibelungenlied, and that famous love opera Tristan and Isolde.

Elbert Hubbard has written a series of little stories of the lives of eminent orators, authors, philosophers, and artists. The library has this collection which includes the lives of Bellini, Botticelli, Corot Gainsborough, Marat, Pericles, William Pitt, Wendell Phillips, Seneca, Thorwaldsen, Samuel Johnson, and Whistler.

The West Side branch received a gift of ten books for young people this week. The books will be at the branch by Wednesday.

Others of the new books are: The butterfly book, by W. J. Holland; The honorable Senator Sagebrush, by F. Lynde; Up to Galvins, by L. E. Richards; Little aliens, by Myra Reily; A history of American music, by L. C. Elson; and a life of Louisa May Alcott, by Belle Moses. The boys will be glad to see the book by Morgan, "How to build a 20-foot bi-plane glider, and The auto boys' camp, by J. A. Braden.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY LIBRARY

In spite of the dreadful storms raging all over the county, Mrs. Whitbeck has been meeting her engagements just as though the sun were shining his best. Monday, Tuesday and Friday were spent in Pittsburg, cataloging the collection of about 550 books given the city by Sumner Crosby. This is a very fine library, only about 100 titles being fiction; the rest comprise works in history, political economy, the classics, and a very large proportion of biography, the cyclopedia Britannica, a Century dictionary and Dictionary of Names. Pittsburg is to be congratulated upon having such a fine beginning for its library. The formal opening is to take place on Monday evening. The ladies of the Improvement Club have been indefatigable in their efforts to make the Town Hall look cozy, more like a library and less like a town hall. Very fine Glove-Vernicke book cases have been installed, the ladies wisely having an eye to the future, when they shall either have a library building or a more commodious room. About 125 titles were sent from the county library, divided about evenly into fiction, children's books and non-fiction. Mrs. Whitebeck will be present at the opening and will tell stories suitable for such an occasion.

Thursday night found the county librarian at Danville, where she went to tell stories at an entertainment given by the Improvement Club of that place. After telling a few humorous stories for the children present, she told "The Vision of Anton" and the "Christmas Carol," illustrated by the radioptican.

The Progressive Club of Martinez honored Mrs. Whitbeck at their last meeting by voting her in as a member of the club. Although not always able to attend, by being a member of the club, Mrs. Whitbeck will be able to keep in touch with the program for each meeting and have the references necessary for the members.

The schools are very fast realizing what the county library can do for them and keep the county librarian and her assistant busy ordering supplementary reading for the lower grades. As all these readers leave the county office neatly covered with manilla paper, it is not hard to imagine the rapid work necessary to send out 50 readers in one set, 50 in another and so on. Each morning's mail brings requests from the branches and now even in the fourth month, Mrs. Whitbeck reports that she often has to use a whole morning in answering and filling out branch orders. Besides the home work, letters are constantly received asking for information and assistance from other places—from counties thinking of establishing county libraries.

After months of effort in which they have worked untiringly for the success of the undertaking, the ladies who have cherished the hope that Pittsburg, this county, would secure possession of a free library, will witness the successful culmination of their plans. Pittsburg's first library is to be dedicated tonight and Mayor Gregory of that city is to preside at the ceremonies.

At the special meeting of the Improvement Club of Pittsburg on Friday, the ladies paid Mrs. Whitbeck a great compliment—that of making her an honorary member. The honor was highly appreciated and Mrs. Whitbeck hopes to keep in close touch with the work done by the club which promises to be of high order.

Automobile experts have seen the new car and are most enthusiastic over the many new features of the latest low priced automobile and it is said that many overtures have been made to the promoter of the new factory for territory selling rights.

ATHLETIC CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

A number of the fight fans of this city have started the ball rolling for the organization of the Richmond Athletic club. The club held a meeting in the gymnasium at the rear of the Smokerte cigar store last evening and elected the following officers.

Jimmy Dunn is president and manager; Clarence English is secretary and Peter N. Jess is the treasurer. The directors are William F. Logan, "Bud" Wright and Richard Marlow. Robert Johnson will handle the athletics.

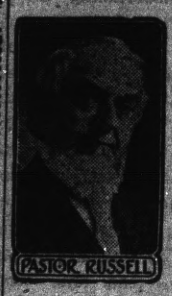
MESSIAH'S KINGDOM SOON TO BLESS

Prophecies Indicate That "the Time Is at Hand."

God's Typical Kingdom—Overturned 606 B. C.—Great Line of World-Empires—"The Times of the Gentiles." Israel's "Seven Times" of Chastisement—The Two Synchronous—About to Expire—Now—The Fifth Universal Empire — Spiritual, Invisible — The "Better Resurrection" at Hand—"The Desire of All Peoples" is Jerusalem and Messiah.



PASTOR RUSSELL

Cleveland, Ohio. N. J., Jan. 25.—Pastor Russell is here today. We report his sermon from the text: "Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same. * * * I will overturn, overturn, it: * * * until He comes whose right it is: and I will give it Him."—Ezekiel 21:26, 27.

The Pastor pointed out that according to Scripture Messiah was to be of King David's lineage. For several centuries the royal family of David's line had a precarious course. King Zedekiah, the last of the line, lost his crown in 606 B. C. He is the king referred to in our text. Since then there has been no king of David's lineage. Neither the Maccabees nor the Herods were Jews at all. The kingdom is still overturned, the foreordained time for its re-establishment not having come.

"Times of the Gentiles."

Then the Pastor explained that although there were Gentile kingdoms long before Israel became a monarchy, yet God recognized none of them, but entered into covenant relationship with Israel only. After the verdict of our text was given against Israel, to hold good until Messiah's Reign, then Divine providence recognized one great line of world-empires. These were given leasehold privileges covering the period of Israel's overturning—until the time for Messiah's Kingdom.

The speaker then pointed out that Moses had prophesied Israel's chastisement, and in symbolic numbers foretold that it would last "seven times." The Gentile Times, or years, are likewise seven. Both periods begin to count at the same time, and will end simultaneously. When these end, Messiah's Kingdom will begin its Reign. Israel will be associated with Messiah's Empire as His earthly people—Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and all the Prophets being made princes in all the earth, as promised in Psalm 45:16.

Next the Pastor declared that God through the Prophet Daniel gave us two pictures of the "seven times" of Gentile supremacy. One was a vision given King Nebuchadnezzar, who overthrew King Zedekiah. It gives the worldly view of Gentile governments. The whole period was represented by a glorious image, whose head was of gold, etc.

Given the pointer that Babylonia represented the head of gold, any school boy could show that Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome were the other Empires. The feet represented Rome ecclesiastical, with her daughters dominating Europe today. Messiah's Kingdom is symbolized by the stone which struck the image on its feet and demolished it.

The other picture was a vision given the Prophet Daniel, in which these Gentile kingdoms were pictured as beastly. In contrast, Messiah's Kingdom was represented as human.

Where Are We Now?

The Pastor then showed that in Scripture a "time" is a symbolic year, i. e., each of its days is symbolic of a year, lunar time—360 days. Hence "seven times" equal 2520 years. Reckoning from the date of Zedekiah's dethronement, we have 1915 A. D. This indicates that in 1915 Messiah's invisible Kingdom will be in power, the Gentile lease will have expired and Israel's disfavor will have ended. The Prophet Daniel foretold a great Time of Trouble at that time. See Daniel 12:1.

The Scriptures teach that for centuries Satan, a spirit being, has exercised great power amongst men—an evil influence which God has permitted, with certain limitations. Satan's reign has been one of sin; Messiah's will be one of righteousness. Both Empires are spiritual, invisible to men; both operate through man.

The Pastor then set forth the Scriptural proofs that the Jewish "fathers" are to be "princes in all the earth." This implies their resurrection at no distant day. They will be raised perfect, examples of what mankind may attain. The prospect of this "better resurrection" stimulated them to heroic lives of faith and obedience to God.

According to Scripture, said the Pastor, there will be no more war after the great trouble of 1915. The princes of Israel will have dictatorial powers backed by the spiritual Kingdom—just what the world needs.

The Law Covenant will be in power, but not as before. That will be the regime of the New Law Covenant, with Messiah as Mediator. Gradually the stony condition of heart common to humanity will give place to tender-heartedness—the true human nature, as before Adam fell, will prevail. All who refuse to make progress, after one hundred years' probation, will be counted unworthy of future favors, and will be utterly destroyed.

Start the New Year right and take some of our installment propositions that each month places something to your credit. Can you buy Bread, Meat, or even a Soup Bone, with your rent receipts? No. Then why invest your money for something in-valuable. In case you should have to leave Richmond, as many of you argue, what have you to offer for sale if you are a renter? But on the other hand, if you have a Contract of a desirable piece of property, you have something to sell, and I know parties that have sold at a profit in only a short time. You can do the same. HAVE APPEALED TO PEOPLE OF THE STATE

J. I. Craig, treasurer, and the executive committee of the Inland Waterways Association of California, have prepared an appeal addressed to the people of California, to become members in the Inland Waterways Association, and to furnish the necessary funds to make a success of the highly important work to be undertaken by that association. The appeal is as follows:

"To the People of California:—Every man, woman and child in California is virtually concerned, in having the work of the Inland Waterways Association of California, a complete success. This institution was organized by the International Waterways Congress, which was held in San Francisco, January 15, 17, after all phases of the questions involved had been thoroughly discussed and a general and satisfactory conclusion had been reached, by one of the most eminent bodies of Californians that has ever been assembled.

"The following section was adopted as a part of the constitution of the Association, and it should be read thoughtfully and appreciatively by all persons who hope for and are willing to promote the prosperity of California at this time.

"The purpose of this organization shall be the furtherance of navigation by means of inland waterways, and the investigation, co-ordination and promotion of navigation, water storage, flood water control, irrigation, drainage, reclamation and kindred subjects, all being related or incidental to the primary purpose of inland waterways navigation."

"The plan of organization includes that the membership shall consist of organizations, individuals and political subdivisions, and municipalities interested in the purcurred during its session, but not Waterways Congress, at the individual cost of its members, and by labors lasting three days, paved the way for the public to co-operate for the general good.

"The Association no wneeds money immediately that there may be no halt in the work. An office has been opened in the Merchants Exchange Building in San Francisco, room 1207, with telephone Sutter 4819.

"The congress contributed sufficient money to pay for expenses incurred during its session, but not much more. We now appeal earnestly to all organizations that are eligible to membership, to come forward at once, prepared to send their checks for the support of the association. It costs but five dollars for an annual membership; but this does not imply that patriotic citizens shall not contribute very much larger sums than five dollars each. We call upon citizens to be prompt and to be liberal.

Money received for the work of the Association will be an investment for the prosperity of every person and every industry in California, tending to increase the values of land, leading to conditions which will make the great valleys more populous and more productive, and will be better placed than it could possibly be placed in any other direction.

Blank applications for membership required from the office of the Association in San Francisco, to any desired point without delay. Checks may be sent to Room 1207 Merch-

WILL FIGHT OVER SUICIDE'S ESTATE

MARTINEZ, Jan. 26.—A triangular fight is being waged over the possession of the $10,000 estate left by the late William A. Nolan, the Rust hardware merchant who committed suicide here on December 14 last after having been preceded into the future world by his wife who also took her own life.

Oliver E. Nolan, a son of the deceased, figures as the opponent of his father's will which he alleges was made while the aire was laboring under mental delusions and therefore not deserving of consideration in the court.

The proceedings in probate were originally instituted in Alameda county but afterwards transferred here where the testator had lived and died.

It was Public Administrator C. E. Daley who put in the petition to uphold the will with J. E. Rodgers as his attorney. The son then entered a contest and W. H. Bartlett enters into the fray as the friend of the deceased merchant and in his answer to the allegations put forth by the son denies that the elder Nolan was of unsound mind. The answer came this morning in the mail for filing with County Clerk Wells.

In his will the testator bequeaths all his title and interest in the hardware store at Rust to L. P. Johnson, a life long friend. His life insurance is to go to the son. W. P. Elliott is awarded $400 "after Elizabeth Moles is paid $5385 and $35 for a machine." He cuts off the kin of his deceased wife with a dollar each. The will was made five days previous to his self inflicted death.

The attorney for Bartlett is Aaron Turner, the son is represented by Harry E. and Abe P. Leach of Oakland and the public ant's Exchange building, San Francisco, California.

RIVER FOLKS ARE GIVEN A WARNING

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 26.—Local Forecaster N. R. Taylor has sent out warnings to the island settlements in the lower Sacramento river and to those living in the delta region of the San Joaquin and Sacramento rivers.

The Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers are at critical stages as the result of the almost unprecedented rains that fell in the watersheds of these important California streams.

The rains which in many places amounted to cloudbursts, have resulted in the Sacramento river rising to high stages from the mouth of the American river above Sacramento to Red Bluff. While the rain was moderate in the watersheds of the upper Sacramento and Pitt rivers, the downpour was torrential in the watersheds of the Feather and Yuba rivers. From Colfax to Towle there were cloudbursts.

It is reported that a portion of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company's big ditch at Magra near Colfax, has gone out.

PREACHER TELLS ABOUT CORKSCREWS

We all guessed wrong as to the substance of Rev. Stewart's sermon on "Why is a Corkscrew?" During the course of the sermon the audience was doubled up with mirth several times at the wit of Rev. Stewart's remarks. Despite the inclemency of the weather there was a good sized crowd to hear the sermon. Rev. Stewart said in part:

"I have no trouble opening a medicine bottle, or a milk bottle; but some people seem to want a corkscrew to open some bottles. There are corkscrew business men who are tricky, and give short weights. Corkscrew city officials who accept bribes, and listen to threats. Corkscrew Church members who are hypocrites. There are corkscrew churches which try to get children from other Sunday schools by promising better picture cards, and jobs for their papas. Corkscrew ministers who preach what they don't believe, and will not live up to. Corkscrew church attendants who say they enjoy a sermon but do not try to live, and they will not pay their way.

"A corkscrew has ridges of selfishness, and recedings from goodness. A corkscrew has lines of pride and hollows of hidden wrong. Because another person is a corkscrew that doesn't excuse you. 'Each one of us must give an account of himself to God.' Why are you so busy storing up things other folks have done; you haven't got to account for them. Jesus said, 'Why behold the mote in the brother's eye when there's a beam in thine own.' Instead of judging help.

"Why is a corkscrew? to pull a cork. Why are there corkscrew people? for other people to hide behind. In the hiding behind a corkscrew person you are worse than they, for you are merely an imitator. How does your account stand with God? He has given you all you have, and he is still giving to you. What are you giving him? You talk about unfair to labor; nothing is more unfair than the way you treat God. Don't try to hide, you've got to give an account to him. We cannot pay him all; but by accepting Jesus Christ, and living his religion God cancels our debt.

REGISTRATION SHOWS G. O. P. ON TOP

Twenty days of registration this year under California's new primary law will show that the G. O. P. will distance the Progressives.

Figures compiled from all over the state and from every center of population show Republicans have registered 49,251, as compared with 31,219 Progressives. Democrats are trailing along behind with a registration of 24,113.

Progressives have been making every effort to roll up a big registration since January 1st. In Republican ranks little or no incentive has been offered to the rank and file of the party to record its political affiliation. The political activity attendant on the formation of the new party has failed to draw the recruits hoped for.

Following is a table showing the registration for twenty days last past in the state:

URSO CONCERT CO. TO ENTERTAIN RAILROADERS

The Urso Concert company, of Aurora, Ill., is booked for an entertainment at the Santa Fe reading room for Wednesday evening, January 28th. The employes of the railroad corporation will have a musical treat, according to Superintendent of Reading Rooms S. E. Busser, of the Santa Fe company, who in his foreword says:

"Here we have an orchestra, soloists both in vocal and instrumental, and a dramatic company. They come from one of the greatest musical centers in the United States. When we introduce them as from Aurora and Illinois, we are simply announcing that they are the best company for Reading Room entertainments procurable.

"I am pleased with them because they will give a different concert from any we have had. As an encore they may give some old number, but variety will be the rule. I am especially interested in their last number, a poem and piece of music written in honor of the Santa Fe. One of the results of these entertainments has been to introduce songs and music which have become whirlwinds all over the world. We are glad to give the credit of all this to the employes, who know a good thing when they see or hear it. At any rate you cannot afford to miss the Urso Company from Aurora."

STATE TO RETURN LICENSE MONEY

The possibility that the state may have to return to corporation hundreds of thousands of dollars collected from them under protest in payment of the corporation license tax was considered in Secretary of State Jordan's office, following receipt of the decision of the state supreme court that the exaction of the tax from the Hartford Insurance Company was illegal.

The decision held that as the insurance company came under the provision of the tax law of 1910, which assessed banks, public utilities, corporations and insurance companies a percentage of their gross receipts in lieu of all other taxes, the Hartford company should be exempted from the payment of the franchise tax.

Nearly every other corporation coming under the law of 1910 has protested the payment of the franchise tax. Now that the precedent has been established, other companies are expected to secure easy verdicts.

The legislature probably will be called upon to appropriate money for the refund of these taxes.
